Jaws Septembers meeting Songs of Praise For sale October Demo Profiles Errata Events	September's Meeting What with holidays and so on, planning for this meeting didn't happen. Fortunately for us, Mike and Robin came to the rescue. Robin started a natural edged bowl in damson and Mike made a small box with an amusing finial and a cup— pictures below.
Songs of Praise One from Paul Jowett If you were at the last meeting, you will have seen some very nice pieces in yew by Paul. Unfortunately, I didn't have my camera with me! But he did let on that the wood had come from a timber yard in Truro who had been very helpful and if you can show them	Profiles Moved to Hints & Tips page. For Sale See the For Sale section of the web site Errata The tool rest must be ABOVE centre and not below it, as chasing is done at the trail, not as a cut with a gouge. With thanks to John Berkeley for pointing out this rather important point from the last issue's article on thread chasing.	Forthcoming Events Wood Sale & Fair At Ickworth House on 12 and 13 October 10 'til 4. Admission is free to National Trust members or £2.70 for adults. This is an opportunity to buy wood from the Ickworth estate, but there are also other attractions such as pole lathing and various other crafts. Ickworth is 2 miles South West of Bury St Edmunds on the A143 in Horringer
